ACTIVITY REPORT

AUGUST 27, 2004

ACTIVITIES REPORTED THROUGH AUGUST 25, 2004

PUBLIC INFORMATION OFFICE -- 703-246-2253

---

There are three sections in this report: Section I: MAJOR INCIDENTS; Section II: PROPERTY CRIMES; and, Section III: ANIMAL RELATED INCIDENTS. Sections are appropriately identified. Within the sections, incidents are organized by station, then by type of offense. They are listed alphabetically by street address.

Addresses shown indicate blocks and not specific locations. Thus an entry showing Chain Bridge Road 4100 would mean the 4100 block of Chain Bridge Road, not the address 4100 Chain Bridge Road.

An asterisk (*) before an item indicates that an incident report was distributed on that offense.

The motorist would not stop for the officer, and a pursuit ensued. At Richmond Highway, and Huntington Avenue, the driver hit a police car and flipped over several times before landing on all four wheels. Both the driver and the passenger exited the stolen automobile and led police on a foot chase. They both were caught a short time later and treated for minor injuries. Thomas A. Ford of 5387 Emma Lane in Indian Head, Maryland, was arrested and charged with speed to elude, possession of stolen property, and obstruction of justice. The woman began to resist when the man pointed a gun at her and demanded the items. She complied and the man ran towards Lee Highway. About 1:07 a.m. two men entered the Mobil gasoline station, located at 3070 Gatehouse Road, and approached the teller. One man displayed a handgun and demanded the 47-year-old Annandale area man open the cash drawer while the second suspect went outside and acted as a lookout. ### ANIMAL CONTROL DIVISION

Dover Court

5600 (Franconia District)

On Saturday, August 21, the Fairfax County Police Department's Animal Control Division was summoned by a homeowner who discovered an injured raccoon on their property. The animal died prior to police arrival and the carcass was taken to the Fairfax County Health Department where it tested positive for the rabies virus. The homeowner's pets were quarantined as a precaution even though they were current on their rabies shots.

*West Ox Road

4500 (Fair Oaks District)

Two men were charged with animal cruelty after neglect led to their German shepherd's death. On Friday, July 30, 2004, at 11:30 a.m. Chris Do, 31, of 20948 Cherokee Terrace in Sterling, Virginia, brought his black and tan German shepherd into the Fairfax County Animal Shelter to be euthanized. He and his cousin Vu Do, 28, of 5307 Queensberry Avenue in the Springfield area both owned the dog and shared custody. The dog had multiple open sores and injuries which were so severely infected there was a pungent odor emitting from them. The dog, after being seen by a local veterinarian, was euthanized. Animal Control Officer Richard Cash discovered the dog had been seen by a veterinarian seven months earlier for fly bites. At that time the veterinarian indicated that the dog was in poor health but could recover. The investigation was concluded when enough evidence showed neglect was the cause of the medical issues that led to the animal being euthanized. The two dog owners turned themselves into police and were released on their personal recognizance.
